We have known and worked with the firm of Fred Kau Plumbing & Heating Ltd. for twenty years in a professional business capacity and for this reason we can provide you with our recommendation and comments accordingly.

CRD Construction Ltd. now well into our 30th year in business specializes in Design-Build Construction in addition to Public Tendered Industrial, Commercial and Institutional construction projects. Our Design-Build construction projects rely heavily on professional plumbing and heating designs and solutions which we obtain from our list of prequalified mechanical subcontractors, of which this firm is one that we have used extensively over the years.

In the past 20 years our company has worked together with Fred Kau Plumbing & Heating Ltd. on numerous design-build industrial, commercial and residential projects in addition to public tendered projects. The Plumbing and HVAC service that we have received from this firm have been and continues to be exceptional in this very competitive marketplace.

The company has a long successful history in this region and has demonstrated quality workmanship and prompt service while maintaining professionalism, integrity, ethics, skilled workers, and honesty.

For these reasons CRD Construction Ltd. will continue to use and recommend Fred Kau Plumbing & Heating Ltd. to other business associates and customers.

Should you wish to confirm anything in this letter feel free to contact me at your convenience.

Sincerely,

John Donato
President
